

M. E. Sharpe News

The Antitrust Impulse

An Economic, Historical, and Legal Analysis

Edited by Theodore P. Kovaleff, formerly,
School of Law, Columbia University

This outstanding collection celebrates the 100th anniversary of the Sherman Act of 1890 and the 75th anniversary of the Clayton Act of 1914. It includes thirty contributions by scholars and practitioners of antitrust law in academia, law firms, Congress, and the Justice Department that define what role antitrust goals should play in the years ahead. This galaxy of antitrust luminaries will stimulate students of antitrust in law and business schools, in economics, in public administration, and in economic history departments.

CONTENTS

VOLUME I: Introduction by Milton Handler

PART I: Historical Perspective

1. Historical perspective: an introduction, Theodore Kovaleff 2. Did Sherman want to break the "trusts"? James R. Withrow, Jr. 3. Antitrust past—present—future, Jerrold G. Van Cise 4. The first Sherman Act case: Jellico Mountain Coal, 1891, John J. Siegfried and Michelle Mahony 5. The good and bad trust dichotomy: a short history of a legal idea, Eleanor M. Fox and Lawrence A. Sullivan 6. Economists and antitrust: the circular road, Donald Dewey 7. Section 7 and the evolving role of economics, Edwin M. Zimmerman 8. Toward a merger policy that maximizes consumer welfare: enforcement by careful analysis not by the numbers, Charles F. Rule and David L. Meyer 9. The Reagan Revolution, Theodore Kovaleff 10. Directions for antitrust enforcement at the Department of Justice, James F. Rill 11. Merger enforcement: out of the courtroom after 75 years, Robert H. McGuckin III 12. Economic and political foundations of section 7 enforcement in the 1980s, Stephen A. Rhoades and Jim Burke 13. Has antitrust outgrown dual enforcement? A proposal for rationalization, Ernest Gellhorn, Charles A. James, Richard Pogue and Joe Sims 14. The Justice Department and the antitrust laws: law enforcer or regulator? 15. Cycles of antitrust zeal: predictability? Louis B. Schwartz 16. The Sherman Act and the economic poser problem, Walter Adams and James W. Brock

VOLUME II: Introduction by Milton Handler

PART II: Philosophical Perspective

17. Philosophical perspective: an introduction, William E. Kovacic 18. Antitrust today: maturity or decline, Terry Calvani and Michael L. Sibarium 19. Which past is prologue? The future of private antitrust enforcement, John J. Flynn 20. Antitrust relief and the House Judiciary Committee, Hamilton Fish, Jr. 21. State action and "active supervision": an antitrust anomaly, William H. Page 22. State antitrust remedies: lessons from the laboratories, Ralph H. Folsom 23. Antitrust principles and regulatory needs, Almarin Phillips

PART III: Economic Perspective

24. Economic perspective: an introduction, William J. Curran III 25. Time to repeal antitrust regulation? D. T. Armentano 26. Rationalizing antitrust: a rejoinder to Professor Armentano, Douglas H. Ginsburg 27. A reply to Judge Ginsburg, D. T. Armentano 28. The virtues and problems of antitrust law, Donald F. Turner 29. Longer live the Sherman Act! Hans B. Thorelli and James M. Patterson 30. The future of antitrust: ideology vs. legislative intent, Peter Wallace Rodino, Jr. 31. Section 2 and the problem of market dominance, William J. Shepherd 32. The worldwide influence of U.S. antitrust, Joel Davidow 33. From legal form toward economic efficiency—article 85(1), Valentine Korah 34. The turning points in distribution law, Richard M. Steuer

Series: Columbia University Seminars

January 1994 448 pages each volume • index
ISBN 1-56324-180-3 Volume I Hardcover $75.00
ISBN 1-56324-181-1 Volume II Hardcover $75.00
ISBN 1-56324-085-8 Two-Volume Set $140.00

Order form on reverse side.